The screenshot shows the Department of Public Safety & Police webpage. At the top, there are navigation links: PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS, CURRENT STUDENTS, FACULTY & STAFF, ALUMNI, and COMMUNITY. The main heading is "Department of Public Safety & Police". Below this, there are several sections:

- DEPARTMENT: Police Administration, Field Operations, Support Services.
- ON-LINE SERVICES: File an Anonymous Report with the Police, Request a Copy of a Police Report, Request Case Status Information, File Your Own Report On-Line, Get Fingerprinted or Photographed, Commend an Officer for a Job Well Done, File a Complaint with the Department, Take the Department's On-Line Survey, Register for Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) Classes, Request Special Event Coverage, Visit the On-Line Lost & Found.
- PROGRAMS & INFORMATION: Pedestrian Safety, Citizen's Academy, Pamphlets, Partnerships for a Safer Campus, Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) Training, Ride Along with the Police, Campus Safety Escort, Adverse Weather Information, National Sex Offender Registry, Victim Assistance Program, UNC System Honor Guard, Emergency Planning & Response Team.
- EMPLOYMENT: Interested in Applying, Current Vacancies, Minimum Qualifications, Apply On-Line.

On the right side of the webpage, there is an "ADVERSE WEATHER ANNOUNCEMENT" section with details about television stations and a phone number. Below that is a red banner stating "UNCG IS OPERATING ON A NORMAL SCHEDULE". Further down, there is an "Adverse Weather Line" section with the phone number (336) 334-4400. At the bottom right, there is a "Crime Alerts" section with a list of recent incidents and a "Crime Statistics" section with various reports.

- Find out what the schools schedule is due to adverse weather. This is updated by 6am every morning.

- Also read up on the Crime Alerts on campus as well as the Crime Statistics of the UNCG Police Department.
